Product description

Adeptus Titanicus: Questoris Knights with Thunderstrike Gauntlets and Rocket Pods

This multipart plastic kit contains the components necessary to assemble three Questoris Knights for use in games of Adeptus Titanicus. Each of these machines can be armed with a variety of destructive weapons, from reaper chainswords and thunderstrike gauntlets for close combat, to thermal cannons, rapid fire battlecannons, avenger gatling cannons, rocket pods and choice of heavy stubbers and meltaguns. Each of these options allows you to use your Knights differently in battle, stripping shields from enemy Titans, hunting opposing Knights or even closing in on mighty god-machines and delivering a coup de grâce in brutal melee combat.

This kit comes with enough components to build three Questoris Knights armed with a wide variety of weapons, along with alternate heads. The components include:

- 1x rapid fire battlecannon with heavy stubber
- 1x thermal cannon
- 1x avenger gatling cannon
- 3x left-handed thunderstrike gauntlet
- 3x right-handed thunderstrike gauntlet
- 3x rocket pod
- 3x reaper chainsword
- 3x heavy stubber
- 3x meltagun
- 6x heads
- 3x tilting plate

The models are also supplied with three Citadel 40mm Round bases along with a decal sheet - this features heraldry for Houses Makabius, Vyronii, Malinax and Coldshroud.

Rules for using Questoris Knights in your games can be found in the Adeptus Titanicus Rules Set.
