Product description

Adeptus Titanicus Manufactorum Imperialis

This set of plastic terrain allows you to recreate industrial battlezones for your games of Adeptus Titanicus. It includes a wealth of Manufactorum Imperialis terrain that will give your tabletop an industrial feel and add new features for your Titans to hide behind, cross and capture. Among the features of this terrain are Munitorum armoured containers, complete with interior detail, barrels, cranes, pipelines and much more.

This set includes 234 plastic components, which are designed to build 26 pieces of battlefield terrain for your games of Adeptus Titanicus. These pieces can be combined with other Adeptus Titanicus terrain kits to build massive, impressive battlefields.
