Product description

Age of Sigmar Realmscape: Ghurish Expanse

Begin your adventures upon the battlefields of Ghur with these double-sided, fold-out boards, featuring murky swamps on one side and dry wastelands on the other. When placed together, these boards make a battlefield measuring 44.8" x 30", perfect for 1,000-point games of Warhammer Age of Sigmar, and they are the ideal foundation for a wide range of Citadel scenery products. Due to the easily expandable rules available in the Warhammer Age of Sigmar Core Book, two or more sets of these boards can produce battlefields suitable for games of 2,000 points or more.

The boards are made of thick, durable card with reinforced folds to ensure excellent condition even after frequent use. Each board measures 22.4" x 30" and can be folded into eighths for easy storage in the included sleeve.
