Product description

Battlezone: Manufactorum – Vertigus

The Battlezone: Manufactorum – Vertigus set is a battlefield expansion set for Warhammer 40,000. With two 30"x22.4" gaming boards, it's perfect for laying the foundation of a battlefield for Combat Patrol and Incursion games (or for adding to two existing gaming boards for Strike Force battles) and populating it with immersive, thematic terrain.

This multipart plastic terrain set includes the components to build:

- 1x Storage Fane* (a ruined building made up of two constituent ruined pieces of terrain)
- 1x Sub-cloister* (a ruined building made up of two constituent ruined pieces of terrain)
- 1x Engine Shed*
- 1x Auto-choral Transmitter
- 1x Thermo-exchanger Shrine
- 14x Thermo Pipes

It also includes:

- 2x double-sided, fold-out card gaming boards (each measuring 30"x22.4")

* As the Sub-cloister and Storage Fane are both interchangeable for the Engine Shed, this set of terrain can alternatively be assembled to produce an additional Engine Shed, or two Storage Fane and two Sub-Cloister terrain pieces.
