Product description

Blood Bowl: Elf and Dwarf Biased Referees

Blood Bowl referees carry the weighty responsibility of interpreting and enforcing the sacred writings of Nuffle. They're entrusted with the vital duty of upholding the values of the beautiful game and ensuring both teams strictly follow the rules and compete fairly. Good job so many of them are open to Bribes then, because that sounds a bit boring.

Purchase a Biased Referee for your games and use these awesome models to remind you of any remaining Bribe attempts while making your games more immersive.

These plastic models are supplied in 8 components, allowing you to assemble one Dwarf and one Elf referee. The models are supplied with 2x 32mm Round Blood Bowl bases.
