Product description

Chaos Space Marines Forgefiend

The Chaos Space Marine Forgefiend is a hulking model that possesses the immense hades autocannon. A fusion of metal and flesh that manifests in brutal creations, it features a mind-boggling array of details, from vents, stretched skulls, wires, bundles of cables, pistons, cogs, spikes, claws through to their hoof-like feet, and the Mark of Chaos is emblazoned across the carapace. It is a terrifying addition to a Chaos Space Marine collection.

This multi-part plastic boxed set contains 67 components and a large oval base, with which to build one Chaos Space Marine Forgefiend or Maulerfiend. On this kit, the heads and arms are swappable.

This kit is supplied unpainted and requires assembly - we recommend using Citadel Plastic Glue and Citadel Paints.
