Product description

Chaos Space Marines Noctilith Crown

The Noctilith Crown is a dedicated Fortification for your Chaos army. Protecting your troops with a shield of energy, it'll make long-ranged warriors like Havocs and Obliterators incredibly difficult to displace. Chaos Psykers, like your Sorcerers or allied Daemons, will be able to re-roll failed Psychic tests, allowing you to master the Psychic phase, while your foes will have to worry about an increased risk of suffering Perils of the Warp!

This kit builds one Noctilith Crown. A towering structure, it's an incredible piece for tying your collection together, featuring the same techno-baroque aesthetic shared by the rest of the Chaos Space Marines. Use yours as a Fortification in your games, or grab several kits to build terrifying, Chaos-themed battlefields.

This kit is supplied 24 plastic components.
