Product description

Horus Heresy: Rogal Dorn, Primarch of the Imperial Fists Legion

A being of thunderous zeal and stone made manifest, Rogal Dorn believes in his father's dream for the Imperium without reservation and without question. To the primarch of the VII Legion there is no higher purpose to the existence of the Legiones Astartes than the unification of Humanity, and its illumination by the Imperium's ideals. This resolution drives Dorn and his Legion ever onwards, never compromising, never stinting in any aspect of their duty. The stone in Dorn's soul allows him to do whatever the Emperor requires of him, making him both a master of defence, and an indomitable fighter on the attack.

This multi-part resin kit contains the components necessary to assemble one Rogal Dorn miniature. This is a model of exceptional detail, befitting Dorn's status – his auric armour is absolutely covered in beautiful sculpted details such as multiple Imperial Eagle motifs which add texture, and make this miniature a rewarding challenge for expert Warhammer painters. His bare head, with his expression set into a determined scowl, is framed by an eagle crest, and a large cloak billows behind him. His chainsword, Storm's Teeth, is clutched in both hands, resting point-down on the ground at Dorn's feet. The Voice of Terra is stowed safely in a holster on his hip. The scenic display base that Rogal Dorn's gaming base fits into depicts a shattered urban environment with the corpse of a Space Marine, and the scattered remains of another, prominently displayed.

This 24-part resin kit is supplied with a 40mm gaming base, which slots into a 105x70mm oval diorama base for display.

Rules for using Rogal Dorn in your games of Warhammer: The Horus Heresy can be found in Liber Astartes – Loyalist Legiones Astartes Army Book. This miniature is supplied unpainted and requires assembly – we recommend using Citadel paints.

This resin modelling kit is not a toy – it is a collectible item and construction should only be undertaken by expert Warhammer hobbyists aged 15 years and over.
