Product description

Kill Team: Nachmund

Kill Team: Nachmund is the second full expansion box for Warhammer 40,000: Kill Team, the ultimate sci-fi skirmish game. It includes miniatures for two complete new Kill Teams - the piratical Aeldari of the Corsair Voidscarred and the sinister superhumans of the Chaos Space Marine Legionaries - as well as double-sided game board, terrain, transfers, and a rules manual featuring missions, background material, and full rosters for these two Kill Teams.

In this box you'll find:

1x 96-page Kill Team: Nachmund Rules Manual: Bring your covert wars to the Nachmund Gauntlet, with background material for this pirate-ridden region and the Aeldari and Chaos Space Marine forces within. This manual also includes new rules, datacards, and background tables for the Legionary and Corsair Voidscarred Kill Teams, as well as additional special rules and Shadow Operations missions set in this volatile killzone.

20x Citadel Miniatures: Two full Kill Teams of Corsair Voidscarred and Legionary operatives, each featuring a wide array of customisation and alternate assembly options. Extra components allow for deep personalisation of your Kill Team, and many models can be assembled as multiple different kinds of operative. Each team also comes with a full transfer sheet with over 360 markings and emblems for customising your models.

18x Sector Mechanicus Terrain Pieces: Recreate the abandoned factories and industrial zones of the Nachmund Gauntlet. This assemblage of modular terrain pieces can be assembled in any number of ways, and are fully compatible with a wide range of other terrain kits.

1x Double-sided Kill Team: Nachmund Gameboard: Fight over the battle-scarred outposts of the Nachmund Gauntlet on this double-sided 30" x 22" cardboard gameboard.

These miniatures are supplied unpainted and require assembly - we recommend using Citadel Plastic Glue and Citadel paints.

You'll need a copy of the Kill Team Core Book to make full use of this supplement.
