Product description

Necrons: Hexmark Destroyer

All but unrivalled in close-range firepower, each Hexmark Destroyer is like a mobile gun battery, able to blast its way through hordes of enemy infantry with impunity. If you're looking to support your advance or shore up a flank with some formidable fire support, a Hexmark Destroyer will serve you well.

This kit builds a single Hexmark Destroyer, armed with six enmitic disintegrator pistols, and comes with a choice of two heads. The kit is supplied in 19 plastic components and one Citadel 50mm Round Base.
