Product description

Orks: Painboss

If your Orks are constantly getting duffed up in scraps, a Painboss is a perfect addition to your Waaagh! as they can support your Boyz on the frontline with a combination of dubious painkillers, bionic bits, and Ork know-how.

This 21-piece plastic kit lets you build one Painboss and Grot Orderly. The Painboss has a choice of two head options – one with a bare head with a bionic eye, while the other has a crude bucket helmet made from scrap metal. This kit comes with one 40mm Citadel Round base and one 25mm Citadel Round base.

These miniatures are supplied unpainted and require assembly – we recommend using Citadel Plastic Glue and Citadel paints.
