Product description

Ossiarch Bonereapers: Morghast Archai

This multi-part plastic kit can be assembled as two Morghast Archai. They are clad in ebon-wrought armour which channels the magic of the world into their accursed forms. Possessed with the might of demigods, they wield spirit halberds that blaze with the energies of the slain, the souls trapped within driven to drag others to share their fate.

This kit can also be assembled as Morghast Harbingers.

Includes two Citadel 60mm Round bases.
