Product description

Slave Ogryn Gang

In the darkness of the underhive, might makes right, and there are none more mighty than the Slave Ogryns. They come with a variety of weapons with which they aim to keep their freedom. If you're looking for a completely different way to play Necromunda with a low-model-count gang who love to get up close and personal then the Slave Ogryns are for you.

This 171-part plastic kits makes six Slave Ogryns. It comes with multiple head options, including a Lobo-slave variant, and also features different bodies, optional backpacks, augmetic fists, storm-welders, spud-jackers and the option to make Ogryns with only one arm – though they're far from 'armless! The kit is supplied with six Necromunda 40mm round bases.

Rules for using a Slave Ogryn gang can be found in the House of Chains. Rules for adding an Ogryn Brute to any gang can be found in Gangs of the Underhive, House of Chains and House of Blades.
